Family records of the Waring Family taken from family Bible, published in 1807, printed & sold by Collins, Perkins, and Co., New York.

So far as the present owner knows, this Bible belonged to Doctor Malachi Howell Waring's family. Dr. Waring came to Florida from Columbia, South Carolina, settling in Leon County, Florida, after his death the Bible was in the possession of his widow, Elizabeth Scott Waring, then their son, Malachi Howell Waring, Junior, his daughter Mary Belle Waring, of Madison, Florida. At the time these notes were taken from it it was in the possession of Mrs. Adela Waring Edmondson Miles, great-granddaughter, of Dr. Malachi Howell Waring. It is to be returned by her to Miss Mary Belle Waring, of Madison, Florida, and will eventually be given to the great-great-grandson of Dr. Waring, Malachi Howell Waring IV.

Introduction

The purpose of this study is to investigate the effects of various factors on the growth and development of the human body. The study is based on a comprehensive review of the literature and a series of experiments conducted over a period of six months. The results of the study are presented in the following sections.

The first section discusses the importance of nutrition in the growth and development of the human body. It is well known that a balanced diet is essential for the proper functioning of the body. The study found that a diet rich in vitamins and minerals promotes healthy growth and development. On the other hand, a diet deficient in these nutrients can lead to stunted growth and various health problems.

The second section focuses on the role of exercise in the growth and development of the human body. Regular physical activity is known to strengthen the muscles and bones, improve circulation, and boost the immune system. The study found that individuals who engage in regular exercise grow taller and stronger than those who are sedentary.

The third section examines the impact of sleep on the growth and development of the human body. Sleep is a crucial time for the body to rest and recover. During sleep, the body releases growth hormone, which is essential for the growth of tissues and organs. The study found that individuals who get a good night's sleep grow faster and healthier than those who do not.

The fourth section discusses the influence of genetics on the growth and development of the human body. Genetics plays a significant role in determining an individual's height, weight, and overall physique. The study found that individuals with a family history of tall stature tend to be taller themselves, while those with a family history of short stature tend to be shorter.

The fifth section explores the effects of environmental factors on the growth and development of the human body. Factors such as climate, pollution, and stress can all have an impact on the body's growth and development. The study found that individuals living in a clean, healthy environment with a moderate climate grow better than those living in a polluted, stressful environment.

In conclusion, the study found that a combination of good nutrition, regular exercise, adequate sleep, and a healthy environment is essential for the proper growth and development of the human body. Genetics also plays a role, but it is not the only factor. By taking care of these factors, individuals can ensure that they are growing and developing to their full potential.

THE first of Henry the Seventh's reign was a year of great prosperity and peace. The king was well beloved of his people, and his reign was a golden age for England.
The king was a great warrior, and he won many battles for his country. He was a great statesman, and he made many laws for his people. He was a great patron of the arts, and he built many castles and churches. He was a great lover of his country, and he died for it. His reign was a great blessing to his people, and his memory is still loved and honored by his subjects.

ANNALS OF BETHLEHEM LUTHERAN CHURCH, COLUMBIA COUNTY, FLORIDA.

Compiled by Mrs. E. C. Witt, wife of a pastor.

To Christians the world over, the church is a unique and precious reality. In the church we become heirs of a great inheritance, borne through the ages by consecrated men and women. The more closely one is related to the church, the more active in it's work, the more he comes to realize what the Church means as a fellowship of believing, worshiping, God-serving people.

Ingiving you as briefly as possible, the annals of Bethlehem Church, mostly historical and biographical, I would have you go back with me ten years to October 29, 1939, when under the able guidance of our beloved pastor, the Rev. Wm. E. Wheeler, D. D. we celebrated the 80th anniversary of the establishing of our church at this place. I would have you recall the "History of the Beginnings of Lutheranism in Florida" so clearly given us on that day by the Rev. E. C. Witt.

About the year 1851 there began a migration of Lutheran families from South Carolina to Florida. They settled in and about Columbia County. Among them were the Peagles, the Hultiwangers, the Koons, the Snelgroves, the Shealeys, the Witts, and later on the Legrones and Bedenbaughs, most of whom came from St. Lukes Church in Newberry County, S. C. and from St. Marks Church just across the river in Edgefield County, S. C. Descendants of these pioneers to the fourth and fifth generation are in Bethlehem Church today.

In 1858 the South Carolina Synod sent the Rev. Chas. H. Bernheim and the Rev. W. A. Julian as missionaries to Florida. They established headquarters at Ocala, Florida. The Rev. Bernheim worked north into Columbia County, preached to the scattered Lutherans and in 1859 organized Bethlehem Evangelical Church. These dates are verified by the minutes of the South Carolina Synod of 1859 and 1860.

In 1862 the Rev. Festis Hickerson of Virginia became the second pastor, but was called to service in the Confederate Army as Chaplain.

For a number of years the congregation was without a pastor. During this period the Rev. Earnie Krops of S. C. made two visits to the congregation, preaching and encouraging the members to carry on the work.

In 1872 the Rev. S. W. Bedenbaugh of Macon, Ga. began his ministry in Bethlehem, serving faithfully until his death in 1879. During Rev. Bedenbaugh's pastorate, the Synod of Georgia met with the congregation, this being the first Synodical meeting at Bethlehem.

In 1881 the Rev. Geo. A. Hough of S. C. accepted a call to the work. During his ministry a new church building was erected, a parsonage built, the membership considerably increased and a Sunday School organized. The Sunday School has continued to the present time practically without interruptions. The Georgia Synod met with this congregation a second time during Rev. Hough's pastorate.

ANNALS OF BETHLEHEM LUTHERAN CHURCH (Continued) COLUMBIA COUNTY, FLA.

't this meeting Jacob Witt and wife deeded to the Georgia Synod four acres of land lying just west of the church property.

During the vacancy following Rev. Hough's pastorate the Rev. M. G. G. Scherer, D. D. visited the congregation for about a month, preached and gave encouragement to the members.

During the period 1885-89 the congregation was served by the Rev. J. N. Summit of Tenn. and by the Rev. Jacob Cloninger.

During the pastorate of the Rev. J. B. Shoup, 1889-91 the Georgia Synod met at Bethlehem a third time.

In 1891 the Rev. P. H. P. Ferrick became pastor and served two years.

In 1893 the Rev. W. A. Julian became pastor and served five years. During Rev. Julian's pastorate the congregation suffered the greatest calamity that has ever befallen it. A disastrous hurricane known locally as the "Big Storm" of Sept. 29, 1896 swept this section of the state. The church building was completely destroyed, but the old parsonage withstood the ravages of the storm. The members of the congregation, with all other people of this stricken section suffered great financial loss and were almost destitute.

Humanly speaking, it seemed almost impossible to replace the church building which had been destroyed but in spite of the disheartening situation the church council met on October 17th and planned for a new church. Trees felled by the storm were sawed into lumber with which the members of the congregation labored to erect the present building. In July 1897 the church was dedicated to the service of the Triune God. Dr. W. C. Schaeffer, Sr. assisted in the dedicatory service.

Rev. J. L. Buck became pastor in 1899, serving for 3 years. Rev. F. C. Witt was called from the First English Church in Knoxville, Tenn. in 1903 and served four years. Throughout his service in the church he emphasized the Fruits of Faith according to the Augsburg Confession.

During the first year of Pastor Witt's service, the Womens Missionary Society of Bethlehem Lutheran Church was organized. As was the case at that time, the greater number of the Womens Missionary Societies of the Georgia Synod had for their primary aim the raising of the Synodical apportionment. As a result of the efforts of the Bethlehem organization, the first year Rev. Witt attended Synod with a glad heart, with the apportionment paid in full for the first time in the history of Bethlehem Church. The second year Bethlehem doubled it's assessed apportionment.

In 1905, the Forty-Fifth Annual Convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Georgia and adjacent states was held in this church for the fourth time.

ANNALS OF BETHLEHEM LUTHERAN CHURCH (Continued) COLUMBIA COUNTY, FLA.

At this meeting of the Synod Rev. E. C. Witt expressed to the Synod the hope that at some future day we would have a Florida State Synod, though there were at that time only two Lutheran congregations in the state: Bethlehem, Lake City, and St. Johns, Jacksonville. Just twenty three years later, during his last pastorate at Bethlehem, Rev. Witt assisted in the organization of the Florida Synod with thirteen active pastors.

During the period 1907 to 1925 the pastors of the congregation were Rev. M. G. Pichard, Rev. H. C. Grossman, Rev. B. S. Dasher, Rev. O. O. Peterson, Rev. E. C. Witt, Rev. J. K. Eford, Rev. Chas. H. Armstrong, and Rev. J. E. Zerger, D. D.

During the pastorate of the Rev. J. O. Miller 1925-26, the Florida Conference of the Georgia Synod met with the congregation. At this meeting the State Lutheran League of Florida was organized.

Rev. F. C. Witt again was called to the work in 1927 and served for five years. In July, 1928 the Light Brigade was organized at Bethlehem, with membership of twelve.

Rev. J. A. Howe became pastor in 1933 and served for three and one-half years. In 1933, the Thirtieth Anniversary of the organization at Bethlehem of the Womens Missionary Society and the Fifth Anniversary of the organization of the Light Brigade was celebrated with appropriate candle light services portraying all the different phases of activity in our Missional Work.

In October, 1937, Rev. T. W. Mayer became supply pastor. He served a little more than a year. During his pastorate the Northern District Conference of the Florida Womens Missionary Synodical convened in Bethlehem Lutheran Church.

Rev. W. E. Wheeler, D. D. entered the work Feb. 26, 1939 and left Sept. 1, 1940. During his pastorate the double-door and brick and cement steps were installed. The altar, the vases, and cross were consecrated at the celebration of the Eightieth Anniversary, Oct. 29, 1939.

Rev. J. C. Nicholas, D. D. served as supply pastor from Dec. 2, 1940 to April 13, 1941. After Easter Sunday, Dr. Nicholas and wife left for their home in Pennsylvania. March 3, 1943, Dr. Nicholas again served as supply pastor until June 20, 1943.

During the vacancy in the work the congregation was not forgotten by the synod. Rev. Paul G. McCullough, President of the Florida Synod, visited the the congregation and advised the councilmen of the church to repair and modernize the parsonage as a first step toward securing a full time pastor. The pulpit was filled at intervals by Dr. W. E. Pugh of Trinity Church Jacksonville, Dr. C. P. H. Krueger of St. Johns' Church Jacksonville, Rev. Geo. F. Hart of St. Mark's Church, Jacksonville, and others.

ANNALS OF BETHLEHEM LUTHERAN CHURCH (Concluded) COLUMBIA COUNTY, FLA.

March 4, 1945, will be long remembered by the congregation of Bethlehem Church. On that day the Rev. F. I. Fesperman conducted Divine Service as regular pastor. Pastor Fesperman and family moved into the renovated parsonage, adjacent to the church, and began his work as the first full-time pastor the church had had in a number of years. The new pastor was at that time a recent graduate of the Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary, located at Columbia, S. C. He was a resident of Salisbury, N.C., a graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, N. C. He has shown himself progressive and handled the work with youthful vigor and self-confidence and faith in the God of our fathers.

Mention here should be made of the organization of a church choir, which was for the furtherance of the Kingdom of God by beautifying the services of Bethlehem Lutheran Church and fostering the studying and appreciation of good Lutheran Church music. It has proved a most active auxiliary in our church work by sponsoring improvements in front of the church. They purchased the church sign, bought shrubs, and sponsored the planting of native shrubs and trees in the picnic area. The annual singing of the choir at the Veterans Hospital at Lake City is a noteworthy undertaking. This organization of the choir at Bethlehem Church was effected on Nov. 29, 1945, at which time robes were ordered.

The women of Bethlehem Lutheran Church have shown increased interest in the work of the church under the guidance of Pastor Fesperman and his energetic wife. The Woman's Missionary Society was divided into two circles for convenience in meeting.

The entire congregation had taken an active interest in the improvement of the church property by installing a deep well at the parsonage, piping water to the church and cemetery, building a storage house at the church, clearing the way for an open view on the west side of the church and cemetery, and beautifying the front with a velvety lawn and cement walk. It is needless to mention the marvelous improvement on the interior of our church. I would like to mention a memorial donated by the family to a life-long active member of our Bethlehem congregation, who was one of the charter members of our Woman's Missionary Organization; the painting of the interior walls and ceiling of the church.

Bethlehem Congregation had occasion for rejoicing when, on Dec. 9, 1946, the congregation at Lake City was organized, adopting the name, St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church, with a charter membership of thirty-five. President Hart of the Florida Synod assisted in effecting this organization.

In the assistance given this new organization of St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Lake City, we have strengthened ourselves and created a sister church, which is part of a parish with us to the spiritual well-being of all concerned. A large per cent of the charter members were from the enrollment of Bethlehem Church.

ANNALS OF METHUEN LUTHERAN CHURCH (Concluded) COLUMBIA COUNTY, FLA.

November 28, 1948, St. Luke's Church, Lake City, was dedicated. The service of Dedication was conducted by the Rev. F. I. Esperman, pastor; Rev. George F. Hart, President of Synod, assisted at this service.

As we come to the end of these annals there comes a great sense of deep gratitude to the Lord and Father of us all for his countless blessings on the work of our church, carried on in His Name.

HISTORY OF THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH LAKE CITY, FLORIDA

Written by Pearl Price Jordan (Mrs. T. P.)
December 13, 1949

Copied by Mignon Leslie Howell

COLUMBIA COUNTY, FLA.

Dr. Isaac Boring, a noted Methodist preacher one hundred years ago, wrote from Georgia, under date of April 13, 1829, as recorded in his diary, "I wrote to Brother Roberts, who is living in the Alligator settlement, stating that, if spared, I would hold a two day meeting in his settlement on the 15th or 16th of August." Rev. J. G. Ley, in his history of the Methodist Church in Florida, thinks that the above refers to the beginning of Methodism in Lake City.

In 1845, when this conference was separated from the Georgia work and became the Florida Conference, Dr. Ley was pastor at Ocean Pond Mission, which included Bradford, Columbia, Hamilton, and Sumner counties. It is almost certain that there was then an appointment at Alligator (afterwards named Lake City) in this big circuit.

There have been three sessions of the Florida Conference in Lake City - the first while it was still known as Alligator. In 1856, the thirteenth session was held in Alligator with Bishop J. O. Andrews presiding. It is interesting to remember that the division of the Methodist Episcopal Church into separate churches was caused because this same Bishop Andrews owned slaves. He had married, and through his wife had come to be a legal owner of slaves, which he could not dispose of, for the Georgia laws would not allow emancipation of slaves and Church law would not allow him to sell them.

In 1869, the twenty-sixth session was held, with Bishop Doggett presiding. At this conference, R. H. Barnett was admitted to the conference. His father, Thomas R. Barnett, was a member for fifteen years. Thomas R. Barnett and his wife are buried here in Oaklawn Cemetery. These ministers were the father and grandfather of Dr. R. Ira Barnett.

The fortieth session of conference was held in the present courthouse, which was then a new building, in 1903. At this conference, Dr. J. F. Bell preached his first time at an annual conference. This bit of history is interesting, since later, Dr. Bell served this church four and one-half years- perhaps the longest term of any pastor in the church's history.

Also, it is of interest that Dr. Pacey, who served the church later for a year, and S. E. Phillips were admitted as young preachers. This Rev. Phillips was the father of the late Senator Phillips.

The first land owned by the church, of which there is any record, was purchased from Silas Niblack. It consisted of a city block and is now occupied by the Methodist parsonage, Mrs. T. P. Jordan's home, and the home of Miss Bertha Mansley.

The present parsonage was built while R. H. Barnett was pastor, in 1891. The first parsonage was a much smaller building nearer the center of the lot.

About 1916, while J. S. Chapman was pastor, the parsonage was partially destroyed by fire. Since then it has been remodelled several times, but the main part of the building is the original.

There is no record of the time of erection of the first church. The property was bought in 1832, and since a conference session was held in Lake City in 1836, the church must have been built sometime between the years of 1832 and 1836. This was a wooden frame building on the north-west corner of the lot, facing north. It was a large building with a tall belfry in front, and steps the length of the porch led from the sidewalk. Two doors opened from the porch directly into aisles. There was a slave gallery in front of the building. It was in this building that the First Presbyterian Church was organized, in 1836.

About 1886, while R. L. Honiker was pastor, a more modern church building was erected. It was still a wooden building, facing west on Marion, but in the same location as the former building.

In 1903, the Boards of Trustees and Stewards saw the need of building nearer the business center of the town. Land was purchased (the north half of the block) between Columbia and Alachua streets. During the pastorates of Dr. I. C. Jenkins and Dr. R. Ira Barnett, the present church was erected in 1907.

Rev. E. C. Calhoun saw the need of an adequate and modern Christian Education building. This construction was undertaken by J. A. Leslie, who was elected chairman of the building committee. Plans were begun which culminated in the present, three story, brick Christian Education building, Wesley Hall, located south of the church. Although Rev. Calhoun did not live to see his dream realized, Wesley Hall stands as a monument to him. The first service was held in the Education Building Easter Sunday, April 17, 1927. Rev. H. F. Rogers was pastor and Mrs. T. P. Jordan was Church School Superintendent. These buildings constitute the church plant as it stands today, 1949.

During Rev. Paul Redfern's pastorate in 1943, the church decided to provide a new sanctuary for it's growing membership. Several thousands of dollars were raised during the first campaign for the building fund under his direction.

During the pastorate of Dr. R. A. Guy, 1944-1947, the building fund was increased to about $22,000.

Fire destroyed the roof of the church building in December, 1946, but the damage was soon repaired.

As the membership and church attendance grew, the need became even greater to erect a new sanctuary. The Quarterly Conference and the church's congregation took action resolving to start building. Under the able leadership of Rev. A. A. Koestline and the building committee, plans were completed and ground was broken for the new building, August 29, 1949. As this brief historical sketch is written, the new sanctuary and chapel are being constructed on the northwest corner of the church's property, facing Alachua street. The building is constructed of red brick to match the educational building. Thus the dreams of the congregation are being realized. The cornerstone will be placed at five o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, December 13, 1949. The ceremony will be led by the Bishop, Roy H. Short, of the Florida Conference. It is hoped and planned that the building will be ready for dedication on Easter Sunday, 1950.

In 1948, a Wurlitzer Organ was purchased for the Church Sanctuary, and in 1949, an Electric Tower Amplifying System was installed in the Church.

The church has always been a missionary one. Some of our early minutes report that the entire Sunday School was a missionary society.

A life certificate membership in the missionary society was presented to Mrs. Harriett Wright in 1836. The oldest record of a ladies organization is dated January 1, 1857. This was a Ladies Air Society, the forerunner of the present Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The president's name is not given in the record, but the following officers were named: Treasurer, Miss Mary Hancock; Secretary, Mrs. E. P. Emmons; Collectors, Miss Josie Ross, Leola McNeil. The roll consisted of the following members: Mrs. Frances, Mrs. Emma Chalker, Mrs. Fannie Chalker, Miss Mary Hancock, Mrs. John Streety, Miss Fannie Ross, Mrs. M. W. Scarborough, Mrs. G. W. Price, Mrs. B. H. Palmer, Mrs. Leola McNeil, Mrs. O. C. Hutcherson, Mrs. Harriett Wright, Mrs. McQuig, Mrs. Oateen, and Mrs. Jimmie Snowden.

A missionary society was organized the same year 1857, by the pastor's wife, Mrs. Evans. Mrs. J. W. Hensley was the first president and later was presented a life membership. Since then several life memberships have been presented.

One missionary, E. Clayton Calhoun, has gone out from this church. Four girls have given themselves for life service. During the pastorate of Rev. A. A. Koestline, four boys and two girls have given themselves for life service. Three of the boys have been licensed to preach.

Thus the church has reached out to serve in the past, and with the new sanctuary and the same spirit of service activating the members, it will be able to serve the Lord and the community more efficiently in the future.

MEANS FAMILY HISTORY

This family history was presented by Ola Lee Powell Means (Mrs. D. H.)

The Means family is of Scottish descent but is probably of Norman origin. It is recorded that Enulphus de Maine was standard bearer with William the Conqueror, who led the Normans into England in 1066 A. D. The family probably went to Ireland after one of the many attempts made by Queen Elizabeth to Protestantize the Emerald Isle.

James Means and his brother William, progenitors of our branch of the family, came from Ireland (probably Downs County) to Pennsylvania about 1763. In Dr. Himes' History of the Presbyterian Church, Vol. I, page 422, where the names of the heads of the families are given in 1776 as residing in Fairfax Congregation is listed the widow of James Means, and William Means. James Means left Pennsylvania and moved to Virginia and thence to South Carolina. James first married Sarah Foster, who gave him two sons, Hugh and Joseph, and two daughters, Dorcas and Prudence. Hugh became General Hugh Means and died in 1825 aged 71 years, thus making him born in 1754. He is buried in Old Fair Forest Cemetery near Spartanburg, South Carolina. Prudence is also buried in that old cemetery. Dorcas the oldest daughter is mentioned in her father's will but no age is mentioned and none has been found. Joseph was born in 1757 and is mentioned in his father's will. By a later wife, Rachel Kelso, he had a son James, and a daughter, Rachel. James was born June 17, 1767, and Rachel was born December 18, 1763. The copy of this will is in the possession of Ethel Means.

Of James' children, Dorcas married Faris, Rachel married Henry Foster, and so far nothing is known of their families, neither is any-known of General Hugh's family. James (1767-1847) married Sarah Kelso who gave him six children, James K., Samuel, Rachel, Jane, Sarah, Juliet. By a second wife, Isabel Simpson, there were seven children, William, Minerva, Harvey, Dorcas, Henry, Albert and Isabel.

James K. married Margaret Clowney and they had four sons, George, Samuel, William and Supter. George married and they had three sons, George, James and Charles. His family moved to Micanopy, Florida. Samuel married Ann Moore and they had one son who was killed. Later he married Sue Foster. William married Amelia Cunningham (?) and they had three sons, Samuel, Hugh, and Archie, and two daughters, Ellen and Drusilla. Supter was a doctor in the Civil War. He married Salena Moore but had no children. George, the grandson of James K., became a doctor and practiced in Jacksonville, Florida. He had one son, James, the grandson of James K., married a Miss Augusta Evans, who had a son, James, of Micanopy, Florida. Charles died young. Samuel, son of William and grandson of James K., married and they had a daughter, Nancy, and a son, Samuel. None of the other children of William have ever married but all except Hugh are living near Spartanburg, South Carolina. George and Samuel, sons of James K., were lawyers.

Jane, daughter of James (1767-1847), married a Mr. McCrae and they had two children, Mose and Sallie, Mose died young. Sallie married Tom Glean, and they had no children.

Rachel, daughter of James (1767-1847), married a Mr. Blair of Newberry, South Carolina, and they had no children.

Sarah, daughter of James, married a Mr. Patton and moved to Mississippi, and so far we have no records of them further. Juliet married a Mr. Wilson and we have no further record of her.

Samuel (1803-1881), son of James, married Nancy Vernon Whetstone and they had nine children, Laura Clarinda (1844-1873), James David (1847-1931), Asburry McRee (1849-1910), Lawrence Edwards (1851-1931), Sarah Jane (1853-1938), Mary Emma (1856-1936), Catherine Amelia (1858-1933), Rachel Eunice (1862-) and Samuel Dantaler (1864-).

Of the children of James by Isabel Simpson, the only records we have are that William and Harvey moved to Mississippi when they were young men, and that Henry married Ellen Cunningham and had one daughter, Alice. Alice married a Mr. Cely and had two children, William and Ellen; and she died 1942. Ellen married and has no children. William Cely has a son, William and a daughter. The Celys live near Greenville, South Carolina.

Samuel (1803-1881) moved with his family from near Spartenburg, South Carolina, to Mikesville, south of Lake City (then Alligator) in 1857. There Laura Clarinda married Mortimer B. Collins and had one daughter, Florence Vernon (1873-1926) Florence married Solon Weeks and had three sons, Fred Collins, Frank, and Van Oris (who died as an infant). Fred Collins Weeks married Sarah Hudson and they had one daughter, Florence Louise. Frank married Mae Longworth and has two daughters, Patricia Ann and Caroline.
